

Marvin May Wins by a Head

In Feature at New Orleans

Southern Favorite Under Fine Ride by Jockey Poole Barely Gets Verdict From Auntie May in the Metairie Ridge Handicap at Six Furlongs

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 15.—Marvin May, the thoroughbred that has attracted almost as great local enthusiasm as even Jockey Johnny Corcoran himself, won his third straight victory of the meeting to-day by taking the feature event. Well handled by Jockey Earl Poole, who was forced to ride vigorously from the flag fall to finish, Marvin May held on to win by a head from Auntie May in the $1,000 Metairie Ridge Handicap for all ages, at six furlongs.

The winner covered the distance in 1:14, exceptionally good time considering the condition of the track. However, he was a tired horse at the end, as he used himself up in the early running putting away the early challenger, James F. O'Hara.

The results:

First race (purses, $700; for maiden two-year-olds and 4 and 5 half fillers)—Majority of the crowd was out to see it and it was a good one.
